Minutes

S. Soderstrom requested motion to approve minutes from May 19, 2011. Motion made by J. Kilmer, support provided by C. Kent. Yeas-5 Nays-0

Directors Report

K. Eidson noted that the senior millage request has been submitted. K. Eidson also noted that D. Gilbert, Senior Coordinator, submitted a facilities improvement request along with the senior millage and noted that we should hear something by August.

Assistant Directors Report

No questions were asked but K. Eidson noted that J. Weasel was at the summer staff orientation. S. Soderstrom noted that she was amazed that we were in the 11th season of the summer concerts series. Concerts scheduled to kick off on July 12 with Air Margaritaville.

Recreation Programmer

No questions were asked but K. Eidson noted that K. McNamara was at the last night of the little girls softball league in which we acknowledge and thank the sponsors. B. Hester asked how registration went for the older girls' softball league. K. Eidson noted that it was going well and indicated that the previous organization which ran this program had three divisions of four teams each. Parks and Recreation have increased to two divisions of four teams each and one with six teams.

Maintenance Supervisor

J. Kilmer inquired about the mower that had been reported on. J. Kilmer asked what kind of cost was involved with the higher end mower. A. Taylor noted that the mower would be upwards of fifty thousand.

Senior Center Coordinator

S. Soderstrom noted that she appreciated the reports being provided on senior center activity and noted that it was good to see the actual numbers of people involved in senior activities. J. Kilmer suggested that a meeting of the senior committee be arranged to allow D. Gilbert, the new senior coordinator to meet and understand the function of this committee. K. Eidson indicated that she would set up meeting date.
